

Idaho Arts Charter School Newsletter

November 28, 2007
Issue 13

Principal Jackie Collins

Principal's News

- We have an exchange student coming all the way from Germany to attend IACS and she is in need of a host home. If you are interested in housing this young lady, please contact Bridget at 283-9502. Thank you!
- Make sure and check out our freshly revised website!!! We have some new features, updated calendars of events and lunch menus for your convenience. Scope it out - you'll be impressed!
www.idahoartscharter.org

DATES TO REMEMBER

November 28, 2007
Direct Writing Tests -
Grades 5, 7, 9

November 29, 2007
Direct Math Tests -
Grades 4, 6, 8

December 4, 2007
3rd-4th Grade Pow-Wow
at IACS, 6:30pm

December 11, 2007
IACS Winter Dance
Performance at Nampa
Civic Center, 7:00pm

December 12, 2007
IACS Music Dept Holiday
Show at Civic Center, 7pm

December 13, 2007
MS Drama Production at
IACS, 7:00pm

December 14, 2007
IACS HS Winter Formal
at Nampa HS, 7:00pm

December 17, 2007
1st-2nd Grade Quilt
Museum and Arts Show at
IACS, 6:30pm

December 18, 2007
4th Grade Piano presents
Beethoven Night at IACS

December 19-20, 2007
IACS After-School Drama
production "Babes in Toyland" at IACS, 6:30pm

Dec 21 - Jan 7, 2007
NO SCHOOL - Winter Break; Students return to classes Jan 8th

Regional Honor Choirs

Congratulations go out to Melyssa Jones, Makenna Lowry and Troy Sanders! They have been invited to take part in the ACDA Northwest Division Middle School Honors Choir annual convention in Vancouver, BC, Feb 20-23, 2008. Way to go!!!

Annual Food Drive

The IACS Annual Food Drive is well under way! We will have a special day next Tuesday, December 4. Each student that brings 15 cans of food that day will be allowed to wear pajama bottoms or sweats to school. Uniform tops are still a must.

Tree Festival Performances

Our High School Choir and Dance Team did an excellent job representing IACS at the Festival of Trees in Boise! Congratulations!

Our 5th-6th Graders also did a terrific job for the Nampa Festival of Trees. They had a tree all decked out and it looked great!

Drama Team Competition

Our High School Drama Team did fantastic at the District III Drama competition on November 17! They took 1st place in their division!!!

A big thank you for all the hard work by our drama team members and Brenda Paxton, IACS Drama Teacher!!!

IACS Students Donate

IACS art students donated 41 hand built/glazed soup bowls to the Idaho Food Bank on November 16th for their "Empty Bowls" project.

The bowls were sold for $10 apiece to raise funds for the Idaho Food Bank. Thank you to Mrs. Crowley's Kindergarteners and the HS Advanced Art classes!!